(NOT ADAM) EP
(BIRDMAN)

The songs on the this EP are decent, although the production is, quite honestly, horrible. "Miracle" is boring and doesn't go anywhere, and has characteristically off-key vocals from this veteran AKA J.G. THIRWELL. "Not In Your Hands" has a lounge-music-from-outer-space vibe complete with the cheesy orchestral accompaniment that Thirwell is also known for. "Time Marches On" has a few cool moments, but not enough to redeem this EP, which is way too rough and unfocused for my tastes. (www.birdmanrecords.com)
