

Foetus Damp

ECTOPIC ENTS CD

Foetus (aka Jim Thirlwell) returns with a compilation of previously unreleased tracks. It starts with a big band bang and ends with a 16 minute instrumental. In between are stacked collaborations with pals like Matt Johnson of The The, Jim Coleman and The Melvins, whose "Mine Is No Disgrace" is the perfect stoner response to Yes's "Yours Is No Disgrace" Prog anthem. Thirlwell howls like a wounded animal, producing one of this collection's highlights. Damp is a valuable introduction for anybody yet to step into his precarious but surprisingly cinematic musical dimension.
